The Albemarle and Raleigh Railroad-A Business Proposition.

(Cor. of the News and Observer.) It appears by the election returns that | facilities. about three thousand voter favored the subscription of $100,000 by the county to the Albemarle and Raleigh railroad. I opposed the supscription because I am opposed to county taking stock in or taxing the people for a private corporation, and for other reasons which it is not necessary now to state. I am not opposed to building the railroad, but favor any enterprise that may tend to build up our city

Of the voters favoring the proposition, at least two thousand will be more benefitting by the building of the road than I will be. In fact, I would derive no direct | therefore he canvassed against and used benefit from the railroad. But I make the every influence possible to secure the following proposition to the friends of the

This proposition to be open for six months. T R. PURNELL.

This does not look like opposing the railroad or Raleigh's progress. If you will examine the House and Senate voted against special taxes, except for in spite of the opposition of certain gen-Journals, you will find I have always educational purposes.

The great sin of the Legislature of 1868, if I have understood Democratic speakers and editors aright, was issuing special tax bowls and levying special taxes to aid private corporations. If the principle was wrong then, it is wrong

In company with Samuel Wilder, Esq., then chairman of the Democratic executive committee, and prominent gentlemen, I did oppose the issue of bonds and levy of a special tax to aid in building the R. & A. R R, holding it ought to be built by private subscription. And I am of the same opinion now. A large majority of the voters seemed to agree with me. There were two elections. Failing to carry their proposition on the old registration, the friends of the project had a new registration, when it was again voted down. Some of the best and voted against the proposition. I did my part, but have never claimed what you accord me-the credit of defeating the proposition. As to the epithets and deductions in the article I have nothing to say-the former are based on mistatements. The statement that any one called me liar, T. R. PURNELL.

The CHRONICLE has not misrepresented Mr. PURNELL-it never misrepresents any man, and we give space to what he has to say in his defence. The CRONI-CLE would do Mr. PURNELL no injustice and so we give him a full hearing in our columns. All men are entitled to justice and shall have it from the CHRONICLE To us, yesterday, he said that he was not employed to fight the proposition to vote a tax of $100,000, and that he did so simply as a tax-payer. The editor of the CHRONICLE, who was not then a resident of Wake, had often heard it stated:

1. That the Republicans in Wake county, for a valuable consideration, secured the defeat of the proposition to take $100,000 worth of stock in the Albemarle & Raleigh Railroad. There were, of course, several gentlemen and property owners, who also opposed it. They did so because they oppose such is a free country and upon such propohis own convictions, PROVIDED THEY ARE HIS HONEST, AND NOT HIS PAID FOR, CON-

2. That Mr. PURNELL, with other Republicans, were employed to oppose levying the tax. In his letter he does not specially deny this, but to the editor he said that he acted as a tax-payer only, without consideration. We accept his the Republican party of Wake county was paid to defeat the railroad subscription. Mr. Purnell acted with the second with the s statement, but there are people in Wake | suitings for gentlemen. tion Mr. PURNELL acted with his par ty. If he says he did not get pay, there is and end of that matter, so far as we are

The fact that at the time Mr. PURNELL felt called upon to come out in a card and explain his opposition shows that he felt the need of defending himself, and that the CHRONICLE was justified in all it said yesterday. Upon one eccasion he has risen superior to his party. that a man of his knowledge should not from the party which is degrading his State and standing in the way of its material advancement. It is an abasement of his knowledge to use it to help put the iron-heel of ignorant and vicious rule upon North Carolina. There is excuse and toleration for the ignorant, but there can be found none hate and malice can devise are being used against the people of the South. There is no analogy between the Special Tax bonds which were conceived in fraud and sin, and issued by a corrupt legislature elected by ignorant constituencies, and a proposition for the people of Raleigh to vote to take stock to the amount of $100,000 in a projected railroad that would add greatly to the prosperity of the city, and largely increase the value of all property in the townships through which the railroad would run. The people are the rulers. They have a right to vote such a tax if

WHAT MR. PURNELL SAYS. they desir e to do so. They have a right to reject it if they so desire, and when they do go from principle the CHRON-HE ASKS SPACE IN THE CHRONI- ICLE vill never be heard impugn their motives, however unwise we may regard their oppofation. MR. PURNELL cannot evade responsibility for DEFEATING the A. & R. proposition by saying that some Democrats voted against it. ## PARTNERSHIP.

I hereby announce that I have this day sold my interest in the business of the late firm of Hardin & Pescud, to Messrs. Thomas Pescud and T. L. Eberhardt, who will continue the business under the name and style of Eber-hardt & Pescud. All claims against Hardin & Pescud will be paid by Eberhardt & Pes-cul, who will also collect all accounts due said former firm.

In taking leave of my old triends and cuscomers, I beg to express to them my grateful appreciation of the steady and generous support they have given me for the past thirteen years. I trust they will be equally kind to my successors, whom I cordially recommend to all my friends as eminently worthy of confidence and support. L J. HARDIN. SEPTEMBER 1, 1890.

Referring to the above notice, we respectfully announce that we have this day formed a copartnership for the transaction of a general grocery and provision business as the successors of Messers. Hardin & Pescud. With increased facilities for doing businesss, and an experience (as to one of the partners) of twelve years in this branch of trade, we hope to merit a continuance of the generous patronage extended to the late firm; and to increase it, if an increased stock, low prices and close attention to the wants of our customers will accomplish that result.
